The FSPC has established some guest suitability guidelines. Please read the guidelines and answer the questions below:

- Members are fit and prepared for long days and long climbs at the end of the day.
- Members are prepared for bugs.
- Members are comfortable camping and with camp food.
- All efforts are made to accommodate members with medical conditions, special dietary requirements and those who are young or old, as long as they are able to meet the rigors of the program.

Do you feel you meet these minimum standards? () Yes () No

If no, please describe why. We are able to modify aspects of our programs to ensure that your experience is safe and enjoyable:
